

Save the Date!

Cut your transportation fuel costs in half.
Buy North American fuel and reduce emissions...

“The Compelling Case for Natural Gas Vehicles” Fleet Workshop

Tuesday, November 18, 2008

8:15 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

New England Center @ University of New Hampshire – Durham, NH

Co-hosted by the Clean Vehicle Education Foundation (CVEF) and Clean Cities Coalitions of New England
Workshop Presenter/Moderator – Stephe Yborra, CVEF

Call 207-774-9891 for more information or to register.

Agenda includes:

- Natural Gas Vehicles 101 – Market & Technology Overview
- Available Natural Gas Vehicles & Engines
Presented by: Bill Calvert, BAF Technologies
Bill Boyce, Cummins Westport Inc.
Ira Dorfman, Emission Solutions Inc.
- Fueling Station Design, Development, Ownership and Operations Options
Presented by: Graham Barker, GLB International LLC
Others TBA
- Federal and Local Incentives and Grants
Presented by: Steve Linnell, Maine Clean Communities
Halida Hatic, USEPA - Region 1
- Fleet Users Panel
Moderator: Stephe Yborra, Clean Vehicle Education Foundation/NGV America
Panelists: 3-4 fleet operators (TBA)
- Components of Fuel Cost, Calculating Simple Payback & Life-Cycle Analysis
- Tour of University of New Hampshire CNG Station
Tour Host: Stephen Pesci, Special Projects Director, Campus Planning, UNH

Tour of UNH — CNG Station

Vehicles & Exhibits will be on display throughout the day.

SPONSORSHIPS AVAILABLE!

CONTACT STEVE LINNELL AT 207-774-9891 OR
BARBARA BERNSTEIN AT
603-271-6751

NOVEMBER 19—OPTIONAL TOUR OF UNH'S COGENERATION PLANT

UNH is the first university to use landfill gas as a primary energy source. Join Steve Pesci as he takes you on a tour of the facility.

